“Nurturing the Tree” We asking for funds to create a legacy and future for the Tree, our first event is a Regina Annual Family Walkathon to be held every last Saturday of the month June: $ 5,000.00

This event will celebrate family, heritage, culture and at the same time promote healthy life styles for families. This will be a launch year for the Walkathon. The Saskatchewan African Canadian Heritage Walkathon Committee has recruited Ted Jaleta world renowned runner, alongside the Multicultural Council of Saskatchewan to be key partners in this event. We see a number of events and activities over the year.

“Legacy of the Tree” Diversity Legacy educational packages: $3,000.00

These packages will be prepared by two graduate summer students (with a background in Education/ in partnership with Faculty of Education, University of Regina). These creative and interactive educational packages will target elementary classes and junior high school levels. The packages will bring together the historical contribution of African Canadians who lived, worked, and contributed to Saskatchewan. As well they will encourage dialogue amongst students on concepts of diversity and the principles of an inclusive society.

“Knowledge of the Tree” Diversity Legacy Scholarship Fund- SACHM: $5,000.00

We are proposing two scholarship funds that will support two students entering university or college education as follows: A student who has demonstrated commitment or plans to advance diversity, equality and equity as part of his/her studies/ career.
